THE KANNING CASE.

Evidence Taken Before Justice Beeks To-day.

The Defendant Fined For Assault and Battery.

The case of the state vs. George Kanning, for assault with intent to commit a rape upon Josephine Freeman, was heard in Beeks' court this morning at 10 o'clock, Samuel Hensch appearing for the state and Henry Colerick and S. L. Morris for the defense.

Upon motion the witnesses were separated.

Josephine Freeman was first called. She testified substantially as follows:

My name is Josephine Freeman; I am eleven years old, and live at 104 Barr street; on last Saturday evening I went over to Mr. Kanning's for some water; I got it at the pump and as I was going home I saw George standing at my side; he said "Come here, Jo, I have something for you." I said I couldn't, I had to hurry back; he then took hold of me and carried me into the little back kitchen; I screamed; he asked me to sit on his knee and I wouldn't do it; he then threw me down on the floor and I screamed as loud as I could, but he choked me. About a month or so ago he asked me to come to his room and he would give me a box with needles and pins and thread in it; I didn't go and some time after he asked me why I didn't come over some night and get that box; I told him I didn't want it; after he threw me down he called me a d—n fool and told me to shut up; I still screamed, and he said, "Well, get up, you little devil." I did not cry, I was too much frightened; I ran home and told my aunt.

Mrs. Miller testified: I am the aunt of Josephine; she came home looking very much frightened, and out of breath; she related to me what had occurred.

The defense introduced no witnesses at all, but let the case go to the court as it was, after argument.

Justice Beeks found the defendant guilty of assault and battery and assessed a fine of $10 and costs.

BADLY BURNED.

Particulars of the Painful Accident to Harry Carpenter.

The accident to Harry Carpenter, of which brief mention was made in the SENTINEL last night, proves to be quite a serious affair. The accident happened at the Pittsburgh water tank instead of the round house. Harry with a number of companions was out there intending to go in swimming, when, in running down the steep declivity leading from the railroad to the river, he unthinkingly ran through a pile of ashes, burning coal and cinders, which had just been emptied from the ash box of the stationary engines at the tank. The ashes burned right into his flesh, producing terrible injuries. He was taken to the residence of his uncle, Warren Carpenter, on Taylor street, where he is now lying in intense pain. His father, who is an engineer on the Wabash railroad, arrived home this morning, and states that with proper and careful attention no permanent injuries need follow, although recovery will take a long time. Mrs. Carpenter is lying sick at her mother's residence in Lafayette, and cannot come home at present.

Evidence Taken Before Justice Beeks To-day.

The Defendant Fined For Assault and Battery.

The case of the state vs. George Kanning, for assault with intent to commit a rape upon Josephine Freeman, was heard in Beeks's court this morning at 10 o'clock, Samuel Henry appearing for the state and Henry Colerick and S. L. Morris for the defense.

Upon motion the witnesses were separated.

Josephine Freeman was first called. She testified substantially as follows: My name is Josephine Freeman; I am eleven years old, and live at 104 Barr street; on last Saturday evening I went over to Mr. Kanning's for some water; I got it at the pump and as I was going home I saw George standing at my side; he said "Come here, Jo, I have something for you." I said I couldn't, I had to hurry back; he then took hold of me and carried me into the little back kitchen; I screamed; he asked me to sit on his knee and I wouldn't do it; he then threw me down on the floor and I screamed as loud as I could, but he choked me. About a month or so ago he asked me to come to his room and he would give me a box with needles and pins and thread in it; I didn't go and some time after he asked me why I didn't come over some night and get that box; I told him I didn't want it; after he threw me down he called me a d—n fool and told me to shut up; I still screamed, and he said, "Well, get up, you little devil!" I did not cry, I was too much frightened; I ran home and told my aunt.

Mrs. Miller testified: I am the aunt of Josephine; she came home looking very much frightened and out of breath; she related to me what had occurred.

The defense introduced no witnesses at all, but let the case go to the court as it was, after argument.

Justice Beeks found the defendant guilty of assault and battery and assessed a fine of $10 and costs.

BADLY BURNED.

Particulars of the Painful Accident to Harry Carpenter.

The accident to Harry Carpenter, of which brief mention was made in the SENTINEL last night, proves to be quite a serious affair. The accident happened at the Pittsburgh water tank instead of the round house. Harry with a number of companions was out there intending to go in swimming, when, in running down the steep declivity leading from the railroad to the river, he unthinkingly ran through a pile of ashes, burning coal and cinders, which had just been emptied from the ash box of the stationary engines at the tank. The ashes burned right into his flesh, producing terrible injuries. He was taken to the residence of his uncle, Warren Carpenter, on Taylor street, where he is now lying in intense pain. His father, who is an engineer on the Wabash railroad, arrived home this morning, and states that with proper and careful attention no permanent injuries need follow, although recovery will take a long time. Mrs. Carpenter is lying sick at her mother's residence in Lafayette, and cannot come home at present.

Symptoms of a Diseased Liver.
PAIN in the right side, under the edge of the ribs, increases on pressure; sometimes the pain is in the left side; the patient is rarely able to lie on the left side; sometimes the pain is in the right shoulder blade, and it frequently extends to the top of the shoulder, and is sometimes mistaken for rheumatism in the arm. The stomach is affected with loss of appetite and sickness; the bowels in general are constipated, sometimes alternating with lax; the head is troubled with pain, accompanied with a dull, heavy sensation in the back part. There is generally a considerable loss of memory, accompanied with a painful sensation of having left undone something which ought to have been done. A slight dry cough is sometimes an attendant.
The patient complains of weariness and debility; he is easily startled, his feet are cold or burning, and he complains of a prickly sensation of the skin; his spirits are low; and although he is satisfied that exercise would be beneficial to him, yet he can scarcely summon up fortitude enough to try it.
In fact, he distrusts every remedy.
Several of the above symptoms attend the disease, but cases have occurred where few of them existed, yet examination of the body, after death, has shown the LIVER to have been extensively deranged.

AGUE AND FEVER.

DR. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS, in cases of AGUE AND FEVER, when taken with Quinine, are productive of the most happy results. No better cathartic can be used, preparatory to, or after taking Quinine. We would advise all who are afflicted with this disease to give them a FAIR TRIAL.

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS.

The genuine are never sugar coated.
Every box has a red seal on the lid, with the impression DR. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS.
The genuine McLANE'S LIVER PILLS bear the signatures of C. McLANE and FLEMING BROS. on the wrappers.
Insist upon having the genuine DR.
C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS, prepared by Fleming Bros., of Pittsburgh, Pa., the market being full of imitations of the name McLane, spelled differently but same pronunciation.

A TORPID LIVER
Is the fruitful source of many diseases, such as Dyspepsia, Sick Headache, Constipation, Dysentery, Bilious Fever, Ague and Fever, Jaundice, Piles, Rheumatism, Kidney Complaint, Colic, etc.
It is a powerful agent in the removal of the liver and with its aid you can restore the normal functions of the liver and the system.
The remedy with which persons take on flesh, while under the influence of these pills, of itself indicates their adaptability to nourish the body, hence their efficacy in curing nervous debility, dyspepsia, wasting of the muscles, sluggishness of the liver, chronic constipation, and impairing health and strength to the system.

CONSTIPATION.
Only with regular use of the powerful perfect health be enjoyed. When the constipation is not acute, a single dose of TUTT'S PILLS will suffice, but if it has become habitual, one pill should be taken every night, gradually lessening the frequency of the dose until a regular daily movement is obtained, which will result in a sound and healthy condition.

THE CITY.

Divorce matters are dull.
The telephonic war runs high.
T. K. Brackenridge is on the sick list.
Tony Pastor's receipts last night were about $350.
The new constables have not yet filed their bonds.
Why not call it the war department instead of the fire department?
During the present season Eschliah has won five and lost six races.
At Warsaw Sunday Bishop Dwenger confirmed a class of nineteen.
Mace Long spoke to 5,000 people at the temperance picnic at Lafayette Sunday.
Mrs. Gertrude Shurick has been visiting friends in Warsaw during the past week.
The city council ought to be locked up in the Court street stinkery for an indefinite period.
Mrs. Mayor Zollinger has returned from Eaton Rapids. Her health is greatly improved.
The Lafayette Courier grows enthusiastic about Mace Long and pronounces him "a wonderful man." J. D. Cook, of Toledo, is liable to swoop down upon our unprotected citizens without a moment's notice.
A big Fourth of July celebration would bring crowds of people to the city who would leave a great deal of money here.
The county commissioners to-day awarded the contract for a brick wash house at the county asylum to Wm.
Waldo for $1,285.
A well known business man went to St. Louis last week, put up on Eschliah, dropped a good sized roll and came home disgusted.
Hanlon defeated Elliott easily by ten lengths. Next year Boltz and Kelly will participate in the race, which will make things look differ-ently.
B. W. Chapman has made a satisfactory settlement with the Aetna Insurance Co., and has commenced repairs on his house, lately damaged by fire.
Lafayette Courier: Mr. and Mrs.
Laurey, parents of Mrs. Laz. Hirsch, and Mrs. Graff, mother of Mrs. Chas.
Wise, of Fort Wayne, were in the city yesterday.
Elsewhere in this issue will be found an advertisement for sealed proposals, for the erection of Foster Brothers' proposed three story brick block on Clinton street.

One of our fascinating belles undertook to make a crush upon the tender susceptibilities of Tony Pastor yesterday. It wouldn't work. He was too "tony" and passed her by.
We omitted to state in our yesterday's issue that work on the new opera house is progressing rapidly. We trust our readers will pardon this oversight. It shall never occur again.
Arthur Dodge don't like Fort Wayne but is very fond of Detroit.
He says he rather be a yaller dog with a brass collar on 'n' Detroit than to be mayor of Fort Wayne. Ras Chittenden don't agree with him.
Lafayette Courier: George W.
Jones and wife, of Fort Wayne, were among the attendants at the blue ribbon meeting in this city yesterday.
Both were residents of Lafayette for many years, Mr. J. being a tyro whose labors on the Courier date back to 1854. He is now secretary of the Fort Wayne Temperance Union.
The Aveline House is having its cornice repainted. A SENTINEL reporter was detailed yesterday to take his station in Mordhurst's drug store, directly opposite, to see one or both of the men fall off the scaffold, but their morbid desire to live overbalanced their morbid desire to create a sensation, and they fell not.

The world's fair for 1883 will be held in New York. This is settled, and preparations will commence next spring. The first thing to be done is for the young ladies to get acquainted with some nice young man. It's a good idea not to put this important matter off till spring, either. Better get the young man now. Then you can let the other things rip.
Why will not people learn that newspapers never print anonymous communications? Hardly a day passes that such communications are not thrown in the waste basket in this office, although many of them are in themselves unobjectionable. A letter signed "XXX" was received to-day which would be printed if accompanied by the name of the writer, not for publication, but simply as an indication of good faith. The names of the authors of communications in the SENTINEL are never "given away."

COUNCILMAN'S
The Court Street Pest Hole to be Whitewashed.
The Fire Chief Ordered to Send in No More False Alarms.

Pursuant to the call issued by the mayor last evening, the council met as a committee of the whole to take action on the resolutions and petition introduced into the common council at its last meeting respecting the removal or repairing of the cala-boose. All the members were present except Messrs. Bash, Dreyer and Reese.
The council first met as a council, and a call by the mayor to that effect was read.
Mr. Muhler moved that the sewer committee and street commissioner have the said pit which actually need cleaning attended to at once. Carried.
Mr. Chittenden offered a resolution instructing the chief engineer of the fire department not to send in any more false alarms for any purpose whatever without the consent of the fire committee, and making any violation of this order sufficient cause for his dismissal, and the imposition of the fine as fixed by the ordinance.
Carried.
It was moved that the council go into committee of the whole.
Mr. Chittenden was elected to the chair and Mr. Lillie was elected clerk.
The first business before the council was in relation to the state of the calaboose as reported by the board of health, which has been heretofore printed in the SENTINEL.
Mr. Muhler moved that the report be received and placed on file.
Mr. Vordermark moved that the committee on public grounds and improvements obtain a specification and estimate of the probable cost of erecting in the north end of the market house or on the corner of Clinton and Berry streets, a suitable calaboose.
Mr. Muhler said if the present calaboose was kept clean that it would answer all purposes for a number of years, and would be less of a nuisance than a new one at the places aforementioned.
A great deal of fire and smoke was wasted on propositions and suggestions for ventilating and cleaning the present calaboose.
A suggestion was offered to fit up the work and repair shop of the fire department as a city prison, and remove the work shop to a temporary structure to be erected in the rear of the engine house.
Mr. Hettler thought if there were not so many counterfeit politicians on the police force they would do their duty and clean the calaboose as it should be. The calaboose would not be such a nuisance as it is. Some one evidently has some property to sell, but he (Hettler) would oppose it. If the council can not order their employees to clean the calaboose they had better throw up the sponge and get somebody else to take their place.
The mayor spoke very unfavorably of the present location of the cala-boose, and strongly advocated the fitting up of the north end of the market house for a city prison, and that the city board its own prisoners, and thus save to the city on the item of board enough to pay the expense of said department in two years.
Mr. Hettler offered the following resolutions:
Resolved, That this committee of the whole report to the common council the following resolutions: And the committee empowers the committees on fire department, police and prisons, together with the committee on public grounds and buildings, to carry out the same.
Resolved, That the calaboose be at once cleaned and whitewashed, and that the committee on public grounds and buildings be instructed to report to this council whether the calaboose can or can be ventilated by a high stack or otherwise.
Adopted.
The committee rose and resolved itself into the council, and the council on the whole reported their action, as above recorded, to the council.
The report was adopted.
Adjourned.

A FIRE FUSS.
A Lively Breeze in the "War Department."

What Chief Vogel and the Committee
Say.
There is war in the council respecting the various duties and rights of the respective branches of the fire department. The committee state that hereafter all purchases for that department must be made by the fire committee, as provided by the ordinance. The committee say they have been very lenient and complimentary to the chief in allowing him to make his own purchases, etc., but that in consequence of his having acted in open and insulting violation of the expressed order of the council and the wishes of the chairman of the committee, they propose to unite
and consolidated act down upon him.
Chief Vogel, on the other hand, says he is satisfied either way. If the council want to run the fire department, they can run it; and that if he is to run it, he wants to run it. He says there must be one head to the department, but he don't care a d—n who it is.
He says that when he issues an order to any of his men, that order must be obeyed and if he can't have control of the action of his men he don't want to have anything to do with the business at all. And, as far as tolling the fire bell was concerned, he states positively that he was never ordered to have the bell tolled and in fact was not ordered to turn out his men, and came near ordering his men back to the house when the first tap of the bell was sounded, thinking that it was an alarm of fire. He was resolved by Councilman Muhler to turn out but was not ordered to do so by any member of the committee. He is glad the matter has occurred as it will decide a question of authority.

COME TO GRIEF.
The Recapture of Reed the Roanoke Body Snatcher.
Particulars of His Arrest at Lafayette.

Yesterday's Lafayette Courier gives the following account of the arrest in that place of Dr. E. L. Reed, of Roanoke, the body snatcher, which was briefly mentioned in last evening's issue of the SENTINEL:
During the past winter one Dr. E.
L. Reed, of Roanoke, was tried in local courts for the crime of body snatching. The graves which it was known he had robbed, were those of a priest called Father Payton and a Patrick Sullivan. In the case of the latter the resurrectionist found the body in such an advanced stage of decomposition that he did not remove it from the grave. The corpse of Payton was found in the cellar of Fort Wayne Medical College, untouched
as yet by the dissecting knife. Reed had pleaded guilty of the charge, but on the day after the sentence of the court was pronounced managed to break jail and make good his escape.
The sentence was only for $10 and costs, amounting in all to about $100.
On Saturday morning George Stoops,
of this city, met a man on Main street whom, in spite of his disguise, he recognized as Dr. Reed. Mr. Stoops immediately notified the police, and Officers Sheehan and Hartman were put on the track of the criminal. The unwary priest, however, contrived to get on a sneak, and was jailed upon a charge of intoxication and the sheriff of Huntington county telegraphed for him.
He arrived at 8:30 and at once recognized the man. Reed in fact admitted the truth of the charge, and virtually acknowledged that he was a bodysnatcher by profession. At 8 o'clock Sunday morning he was taken back to Huntington county. It is said by those who know him best, that the resurrectionist came to this city for the purpose of desecrating the grave of the late Tazewell Johnson.

A RELIC.
A Genuine Specimen of the Genus
Tramp, and What He Said.
A tramp called at a house on West Wayne street yesterday and asked for something to eat.
"Why don't you work and earn your living like an honest man?"
"Madame, I would bless the day that these poor old hands of mine could again work; but, madame, that day is gone—yes, it's gone!"
"Well, what's the matter? Are you not able-bodied?"
"Able-bodied! Lor! bless you, madame; able-bodied! Madam, I served eight years in the late war; was wounded 'leven times; had four ribs broke by being run over by an ambulance, and on my way home was blode up by the Sultana. No, ma'am, I'll never work agin (not if I know it); I'm only just a wreck. My left lung is gone, madame—clean, plump gone; was carried away by a twelve-pound shell at the battle of Waterloo; an', madam, I've got the palperation of the heart so that w'en I'm excited from sawin' wood or the like you can hear it thump for two or three miles on a clear night. An' I darent do it.
(You bet I won't, either). Madam, my spine ain't a spine at all worth speakin' of; it's merely a relic. Yes'm, merely a relic, the doctor said. I believe that there was three of the original bones left. The rest is kinder wooden braces put in there to kinder keep me up like. My spine was just clean ripped out by a grape shot while I was a layin' down when we was in stormin' Fort Scott, an', madam, if I was to take off my hat you could look clean down to my boots. The top of my head is plum off; was sliced off by a cavalryman at the battle of Santa Fe, jest as slick as you'd slice an onion. Th' here, madam, what appears to you is a leg is merely a wooden fixin' that I got to keep me

A FIRE FUSS.
A Lively Breeze in the "War Department."

What Chief Vogel and the Committee
Say.
There is war in the council respecting the various duties and
rights of the respective branches of the fire department. The committee state that hereafter all purchases for
that department must be made by the
fire committee, as provided by the ordinance. The committee say they have been very lenient and complimentary to the chief in allowing him
to make his own purchases, etc., but
that in consequence of his having
acted in open and insulting violation
of the expressed order of the council
and the wishes of the chairman of the committee, they propose to unite
and consolidated act down upon him.
Chief Vogel, on the other hand, says
he is satisfied either way. If the council want to run the fire department, they can run it; and that if he is to run it, he wants to run it. He says there must be one head
to the department, but he
don't care a d—n who it is.
He says that when he issues an order
to any of his men, that order must be obeyed and if he can't have control of the action of his men he don't want to have anything to do with the business at all. And, as far as tolling the fire bell was concerned, he states positively that he was never ordered to have the bell tolled and in fact was
not ordered to turn out his men, and
came near ordering his men back to the house when the first tap of the bell was sounded, thinking that it was an alarm of fire. He was resolved by Councilman Muhler to turn out but was not ordered to do so by any member of the committee. He is
decide a question of authority.

COME TO GRIEF.
The Recapture of Reed the Roanoke Body Snatcher.
Particulars of His Arrest at Lafayette.

Yesterday's Lafayette Courier gives
the following account of the arrest in that place of Dr. E. L. Reed, of Roanoke, the body snatcher, which was briefly mentioned in last evening's
issue of the SENTINEL:
During the past winter one Dr. E.
L. Reed, of Roanoke, was tried in local courts for the crime of body snatching. The graves which it was known he had robbed, were those of a priest called Father Payton and a Patrick Sullivan. In the case of the latter the resurrectionist found the
body in such an advanced stage of decomposition that he did not remove
it from the grave. The corpse of Payton was found in the cellar of Fort Wayne Medical College, untouched
as yet by the dissecting knife. Reed had pleaded guilty of the charge, but
on the day after the sentence of the court was pronounced managed to
break jail and make good his escape.
The sentence was only for $10 and costs, amounting in all to about $100.
On Saturday morning George Stoops,
of this city, met a man on Main street
whom, in spite of his disguise, he recognized as Dr. Reed. Mr. Stoops immediately notified the police, and Officers Sheehan and Hartman were put on the track of the criminal. The unwary priest, however, contrived to get on a sneak, and was jailed upon a charge of intoxication and the sheriff of Huntington county telegraphed for him.
He arrived at 8:30 and at once recognized the man. Reed in fact admitted
the truth of the charge, and virtually
acknowledged that he was a bodysnatcher by profession. At 8 o'clock Sunday morning he was taken back
to Huntington county. It is said by those who know him best, that the resurrectionist came to this city for
the purpose of desecrating the grave
of the late Tazewell Johnson.

Questions and Answers.
Question—How is gold like charity?
A.—Because it "covers a multitude of sins."

Q.—Does gold render people deaf, dumb and blind, and how?
A.—Yes; it makes them deaf to the whisperings of conscience as well as to the cry of misery; dumb when they should hear true testimony; and blind to vice and crime no less than to scenes of destitution. Solid silver and silver-plated ware, all plated ware, triple plated castors, card stands, knives, spoons and forks; 6 pieces of tea ware, $40; tea and dinner set, of China; 106 pieces of good crockery, only $10; students' lamps. THE BLACK CROOK.
The Gorgeous Presentation in this city.

This magnificent spectacular drama will be presented at the Olympic Theatre for one week, beginning Monday, June 23d. Its production in this theatre (which has the largest stage of any place of amusement in the city) will necessitate the removal of all the scenery, flies, borders, etc., now in use. No expense will be spared to make it the finest display ever made in this city. It will be no patchwork concern, as the play will be produced in all particulars as it appeared at the Grand Opera House in New York. Messrs. Palmer & Co., the proprietors, have a reputation all over the country for doing as they agree, and they make the positive assurance that the transformation scenes, grotto, prismatic fountain of real water, cascade of real water, caves, demons, sprites, march of Amazons will be full in all its details. The whole lighted by calcium lights (never before exhibited in Port Wayne). Twenty beautiful Coryphees will take part, and the ballet will be the finest ever seen here. None should fail to see it.

Parties residing out of the city can secure special rates on all the railroads by forming parties of ten.

Reserved seats can be secured, without extra charge, at O. B. Woodworth & Co.'s drug store, in Avenue House block, after to-morrow. 6,17

Every body is going and so are their consins and their sisters and their aunts and their sweethearts. The arrangements for fun are unlimited, and to judge from the sale of seats already made, the pleasure will be unlimited. There will be boating and fishing, and dancing on the island, and music, and maybe a little flirting, who knows? Reinke's orchestra and the Port Wayne City Band will be present to furnish music for the pleasure seekers, and in fact there will be every facility for having a good time. Don't fail to secure a ticket from the committee at once, and go up to Rome on Friday and enjoy the cool breezes and disport yourself upon the beautiful waters of the lake.

REMOVAL.
Call and See A. Foster at His New Place.
A. Foster, the old established and popular merchant tailor has removed his parlors from No. 21 Calhoun street to No. 82 Calhoun street, in Nill's block, where he has fitted up a very handsome saleroom. His floor is neatly carpeted, and his room is arranged in a most inviting way in every respect. There is a good light, making it a splendid place to show goods and to make selections. Mr. Foster has a splendid assortment of goods in stock, and he is better prepared than ever to satisfy his many friends and patrons. He still holds the position of the Best Cutter and Leading Fashionable Merchant Tailor in the city. His prices are reasonable, his goods first class and he always warrants a fit. Don't fail to call at his new place, No. 82 Calhoun street.

THE TELEPHONE EXCHANGE.
To the Editor of the Sentinel:
I desire through the medium of your columns to make a brief and plain statement of the facts connected with the proposed establishment of a telephone exchange in this city in opposition to the one already announced by me, and for which I have obtained a goodly number of subscribers among our leading business men.

Before determining to engage in the enterprise, I made a careful and thorough investigation into the respective merits of the Bell and Edison telephones, and to speak frankly could discover no material difference between the two instruments. The next element to be considered was the cost, at which I could put them in for the subscribers. I conversed and corresponded with representatives of both the Bell and the Western Union Companies, and found the latter to be much higher in terms than the former. The Western Union would not entertain anything less than $50 for short lines and $75 for lines one-half to three-fourths of a mile long. I therefore contracted with the Bell company the arrangements being such that I could furnish telephones at $35 to $60. These rates are very low compared with the prices charged in other cities. Having obtained enough subscribers to warrant me in going ahead, I ordered about $1,500 worth of material. Thereupon, the Western Union Company determined to enter this field and break down my project. Last Friday one of their representatives called upon me and stated that he was about to establish a laundry here. He desired connections with the hotels, etc., and wanted my terms. I saw that he was not the "Chong Kee washee washee" he claimed to be and gave him very little information. I was subsequently introduced to him in his real capacity, and learned that he intended to take subscribers at rates which I could not compete with. I learned that they had offered to take subscribers at $3 per month, making monthly contracts so that they could be discontinued at any time that competition ceased, and high prices could then be charged. I then offered to supply my subscribers at $36 per annum, or $48 for longer lines. Since then I have had overtures to sell out to the Western Union Company, that corporation to have the management of the concern, the intention being as they admitted, to charge subscribers $80 per year. I declined the proposition and now in order to break down my project they are offering telephones for nothing.

They began by asking an exorbitant price, finding that I could do better elsewhere I refused. Now they seek to drive me to the wall by supplying telephones for nothing, their purpose being to squelch opposition and then charge exorbitant prices. If the business men who have encouraged me to embark in this scheme stand by me I pledge myself to establish and permanently maintain a telephone exchange at the lowest prices at which it can be kept up. If the business men are caught by the Western Union bait of low terms they may be compelled to pay dearly for it in the future. In conclusion, I will only say that I do not complain of any fair competition, as I prefer it in any line of business rather than be a party to any unjust monopoly.

An exchange furnishes the following astounding information regarding the effect of the whistling law: "In Port Wayne one of the schools had to be dismissed in consequence of the noise." While the fact is, Port Wayne has not heard the dulcet tones of a locomotive for a number of years.

A BEAUTIFUL BUST.

A Well-Dressed Woman on a Bender.

A Lacerated Hand and Threatened Suicide—Her History.

About half-past five last evening a stylishly dressed and good looking young woman staggered into the Model Coffee Rooms in a beastly state of intoxication, with

HER HAND BADLY CUT and bleeding profusely. Capt. Emery keeps a temperance house and is not used to entertaining such guests; hence he was about as badly embarrassed as the man who bought the elephant. He politely requested his visitor to go elsewhere for refreshments, but she raved and cursed and swore and indulged in various incoherent expressions. She was finally deposited upon a lounge in the rear sitting room and an officer sent for. It was believed at first that she had taken poison and physicians were summoned, who stated that she had taken no poison except of an alcoholic nature. The woman made divers threats of killing herself, and, on the whole, managed to keep matters quite lively for a time.

She said her name was Kirk, and that she had come from Defiance, O., in pursuit of her husband, whom she had found out riding with another woman. That enraged her so that she attacked him on Calhoun street, near the south depot, whereupon he drew a knife and

It was afterwards learned that the woman was a notorious prostitute who had been about the city for three years and a half, living at Mollie Nicholls's and other famous places of resort. She has a history. Her name is McOmmy, and she hails from Logansport. Her father was well off, but died several years ago, leaving her an orphan—her mother having died first. She was inclined to be gay, and rapidly drifted to the bad, coming to Port Wayne and deliberately entering a house of prostitution. During her residence here she has received instalments of money from time to time from her guardian at Logansport, and has squandered it recklessly. Some time since she got some newspaper notoriety here by her charity towards a young cripple whom she found at Collar's house, and whom she nursed, cared for and supported for a long time. She has a younger sister attending the academy at St. Mary's, near Terre Haute.

By the use of narcotics the woman was finally quieted, and left the restaurant last evening in a comparatively sober condition. He hand was dressed, and it is stated that it was not stabbed, but that she cut it in KNOCKING OUT PANES OF GLASS at Fred. Dickness's saloon.

The woman is young and quite handsome, being a blonde with a fine figure, and not dressing or looking like a prostitute.

DIED OF GRIEF.

Circumstances of V. Jacobson's Sudden Demise.

An Old Man Grieves Himself to Death.

The death of Victor Jacobson was duly recorded in the SENTINEL yesterday, but there were one or two errors in the version given. Mr. Jacobson was not found dead in bed. He had been ailing for two or three days, and was taken worse Sunday night. About 2 o'clock yesterday morning Dr. Bruebach, his family physician, was sent for, but no relief could be afforded Mr. Jacobson, who sank rapidly until his death.

The case was a very one in many respects. Mr. Jacobson came here about thirty years ago, and had been engaged in the clothing business ever since that time until a few weeks ago, when he failed and his store was closed by the sheriff. He was a good citizen and a kind hearted man and to find himself in his old age absolutely penniless, and without any means for the support of his large family preyed constantly upon his mind and rendered him almost frantic with grief. His mind has evidently been affected for several weeks past. He would walk the streets in tears, and talked about suicide as the only relief from his troubles. Some kind hearted people raised a little money for the relief of his family, and this was a blow to his pride from which he could not recover. A brother has been insane for many years, and Mr. Jacobson, it was feared, was going the same road, when death came to his relief. He really died of grief.

His family will be rendered comfortable by the proceeds of the insurance policies held by him.

TWO OF A KIND.

Henry Wellbaum and Michael Harrigan Make a Pleasant Call Upon the Mayor.

"Erin Go Pluribus Unum e Bragh" should be the motto of every loyal citizen in this expanse of territory. Disregarding the above injunction is what gave Henry Wellbaum and Michael Harrigan the grand stiff at the mayor's court this morning. Henry undertook to drink up all the whiskey in stock yesterday. He didn't quite do it, but drank enough to make him the drunkest man that ever wore boots. Marshal Diehl found him hanging over the fence around the Clay street school, holding sweet communion with the spirits. The spirits, however, had the best end of Henry, and Henry and the spirits combined got the best end of the marshal, who says he was "a little disagreeable drunk he ever tackled."

"What have you to say in your defense?"

"Huh?"

"What have you to say?"

"Oh, I was not tight, but I was offal seck. I been not a bad man. I been here about eight year already. I was been seck and got a leedle drink an' got more seck. I was not drunk."

Marshal—"He was so drunk he couldn't keep his shirt on."

"Oh, no; I was seck, not drunk. I works for the seck."

Mayor—"You do, eh! Allright. I'll not beat you out of your job. You can work for the city fifteen days longer on the stone pile."

Marshal, call Michael Harrigan.

This Michael Harrigan, be it understood, is in no way connected with Harrigan & Hart's minstrels. He is a separate institution, who goes about the city punishing beer and 40-cent whisky.

"Michael, what have you to say?"

benignly asked the mayor.

"I have nothing to say, yer honor."

"Five dollars and costs; that's all I have to say. Good morning."

AMUSEMENTS.

TONY PASTOR.
Tony Pastor and company drew a very large audience, at the Academy of Music, last evening, and gave a capital entertainment of the kind. The combination is a very strong one, and contains a number of very fine variety performers. Perhaps the best features were John Morris in his lightning changes, which were simply marvellous, and Geo. Thatcher in his Ethiopian eccentricities. Tony Pastor is certain of a big crowd whenever he visits Port Wayne.

THE BABY SHOW.
The baby show promises to be a grand success. Entries have been made for all the prizes and there will be a big display of A No. 1 babies. No one should fail to take in this entertainment, which will be a great novelty in every respect. It will take place at the Academy instead of the Berry Street M. E. Church as announced.

Question—How is gold like charity?

A.—Because it "covers a multitude of sins."

Q.—Does gold render people deaf, dumb and blind, and how?

A.—Yes; it makes them deaf to the whisperings of conscience as well as to the cry of misery; dumb when they should hear true testimony; and blind to vice and crime no less than to scenes of destitution. The Western Union would not entertain anything less than $50 for short lines and $75 for lines one-half to three-fourths of a mile long. I therefore contracted with the Bell company the arrangements being such that I could furnish telephones at $36 to $60. These rates are very low compared with the prices charged in other cities. Having obtained enough subscribers to warrant me in going ahead, I ordered about $1,500 worth of material. If the business men who have encouraged me to embark in this scheme stand by me I pledge myself to establish and permanently maintain a telephone exchange at the lowest prices at which it can be kept up. If the business men are caught by the Western Union bait of low terms they may be compelled to pay dearly for it in the future. In conclusion, I will only say that I do not complain of any unfair competition, as I prefer it to any line of business rather than be a party to any unjust monopoly.

A BEAUTIFUL BUST.

A Well-Dressed Woman on a Bender.

A Liberated Hand and Threatened Suicide—Her History.

About half-past five last evening a stylishly dressed and good looking young woman staggered into the Model Coffee Rooms in a beastly state of intoxication, with and bleeding profusely. Capt. Emery keeps a temperance house and is not used to entertaining such guests; hence he was about as badly embarrassed as the man who bought the elephant. He politely requested his visitor to go elsewhere for refreshments, but she raved and cursed and swore and indulged in various incoherent expressions. She was finally deposited upon a lounge in the rear sitting room and an officer sent for. It was believed at first that she had taken poison and physicians were summoned, who stated that she had taken no poison except of an alcoholic nature. The woman made divers threats of killing herself, and on the whole, managed to keep matters quite lively for a time.

She said her name was Kirk, and that she had come from Defiance, O., in pursuit of her husband, whom she had found out riding with another woman. That enraged her so that she attacked him on Calhoun street, near the south depot, whereupon he drew a knife and in the hand.

It was afterwards learned that the woman was a notorious prostitute who had been about the city for three years and a half, living at Mollie Nicholls's and other famous places of resort. She has a history. Her name is McCrary, and she hails from Logansport. Her father was well off, but died several years ago, leaving her an orphan—her mother having died first. She was inclined to be gay, and rapidly drifted to the bad, coming to Fort Wayne and deliberately entering a house of prostitution. During her residence here she has received installments of money from time to time from her guardian at Logansport, and has squandered it recklessly. Some time since she got some newspaper notoriety here by her charity towards a young cripple whom she found at Collar's house, and whom she nursed, cared for and supported for a long time. She has a younger sister attending the academy at St. Mary's, near Terre Haute.

By the use of narcotics the woman was finally quieted, and left the restaurant last evening in a comparatively sober condition. He hand was dressed, and it is stated that it was not stabbed, but that she cut it in

at Fred. Bickness's saloon.

The woman is young and quite handsome, being a blonde with a fine figure, and not dressing or looking like a prostitute.

DIED OF GRIEF.

Circumstances of V. Jacobson's Sudden Demise.

An Old Man Grieves Himself to Death.

The death of Victor Jacobson was duly recorded in the SENTINEL yesterday, but there were one or two errors in the version given. Mr. Jacobson was not found dead in bed. He had been ailing for two or three days, and was taken worse Sunday night. About 2 o'clock yesterday morning Dr. Bruebach, his family physician, was sent for, but no relief could be afforded Mr. Jacobson, who sank rapidly until his death.

The case was a very sad one in many respects. Mr. Jacobson came here about thirty years ago, and had been engaged in the clothing business ever since that time until a few weeks ago, when he failed and his store was closed by the sheriff. He was a good citizen and a kind hearted man and to find himself in his old age absolutely penniless, and without any means for the support of his large family proved constantly upon his mind and rendered him almost frantic with grief. His mind has evidently been affected for several weeks past. He would walk the streets in tears, and talked about suicide as the only relief from his troubles. Some kind hearted people raised a little money for the relief of his family, and this was a blow to his pride from which he could not recover. A brother has been insane for many years, and Mr. Jacobson, it was feared, was going the same road, when death came to his relief. He really died of grief.

His family will be rendered comfortable by the proceeds of the insurance policies held by him.

TWO OF A KIND.

Henry Wellbaum and Michael Harrigan Make a Pleasant Call Upon the Mayor.

"Erin Go Pluribus Unum e Bragh" should be the motto of every loyal citizen in this expanse of territory. Disregarding the above injunction is what gave Henry Wellbaum and Michael Harrigan the grand stiff at the mayor's court this morning. Henry undertook to drink up all the whisky in stock yesterday. He didn't quite do it, but drank enough to make him the drunkest man that ever wore boots. Marshal Diehl found him hanging over the fence around the Clay street school, holding sweet communion with the spirits. The spirits, however, had the best end of Henry, and Henry and the spirits combined got the best end of the marshal, who lays his GUTTA SERENA; recognizable drunk he ever tackled.

"What have you to say in your defense?"

"Huh?"

"What have you to say?"

"Oh, I was not tight, but I was offal seck. I been not a bad man. I been been here about eight year already. I was been seck and got a leedle drink an' got more seck. I was not drunk."

Marshal—"He was so drunk he couldn't keep his shirt on."

"Oh, no; I was seck, not drunk. I works for the seety."

"Marshal, call Michael Harrigan."

This Michael Harrigan, be it understood, is in no way connected with Harrigan & Hart's minstrels. He is a separate institution, who goes about the city punishing beer and 40-cent whisky.

benignly asked the mayor.

"I have nothing to say, yer honor."

AMUSEMENTS.

TONY FACTOR.

Tony Pastor and company drew a very large audience, at the Academy of Music, last evening, and gave a capital entertainment of the kind. The combination is a very strong one, and contains a number of very fine variety performers. Perhaps the best features were John Morris in his lightening changes, which were simply marvellous, and Geo. Thatcher in his Ethiopian eccentricities. Tony Pastor is certain of a big crowd whenever he visits Fort Wayne.
